PRICE FIVE CENTS

3 ACCIDENTS, $1,000 DAMAGE ON BAD ROADS

Damage totaled $1,000, but only one person was reported injured in three auto accidents investigated by state police Friday night.

Mrs. Raymond E. Barker, 45, Baltimore, suffered minor lacerations of the right leg and right arm in an accident three miles west of here on the Lincoln Highway, near Seven Stars, at 7:55 o'clock Friday night. Police said the injuries were not sufficiently serious for her to seek immediate medical attention.

Police said Mrs. Barker was injured when her husband's car struck the rear of an auto driven by Edna L. Redding, 30, Gettysburg R. 3, causing $250 damage to the Redding car and $400 to Barker's Italian-make auto. Police said the accident occurred when Mrs. John Cassatt, 36, Gettysburg R. 3, whose car was not involved in the accident, slowed to make a left turn into a side road. The Redding car also slowed and the Baltimore vehicle was unable to halt quickly enough. Mrs. Barker's husband, Raymond E. Barker, later paid a fine of $10 and costs before Justice of the Peace John Whitman, Cumberland Twp., on a charge of following too closely brought by state police.

Gov. David L. Lawrence announced today that he has chosen E. James Trimarchi Jr., of Indiana, Pa., to be the new secretary of the Commonwealth.

Trimarchi succeeds John S. Rice, now ambassador to The Netherlands. The governor said he will send Trimarchi's name to the state Senate on Tuesday.

Trimarchi is a member of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission to which he was first appointed on October 2, 1957, by Gov. George M. Leader and re-appointed in 1959 by Gov. Lawrence.

BORN IN 1922
The new secretary of the Commonwealth was born on July 4, 1922, in Indiana. At 38 he is one of the youngest secretaries of the Commonwealth in Pennsylvania history.

In announcing Trimarchi's appointment, Gov. Lawrence said: "I am delighted that the Commonwealth will have the great value of Jim Trimarchi's vigorous insight into Pennsylvania government and the needs of our citizens. He will bring a definite sense of direction and a compelling faith in public service to this new position."

Trimarchi received his early education at the Thaddeus Stevens Grade School in Indiana and was graduated from Indiana High School in 1939. He received his degree in Arts and Letters with a major in political science from Pennsylvania State University in 1943.

MASSEY WILL PLAY LINCOLN

Raymond Massey, distinguished actor who has become perhaps the world's foremost portrayer of Abraham Lincoln, will star in a dramatization of events leading up to and including Lincoln's Gettysburg Address on "The Equitable's Our American Heritage" tonight over the NBC-TV Network from 9:30 to 10 p.m.

The play, "Not in Vain," will be directed by Jack Smight from an original teleplay by Richard Crenshaw. The two-minute, ten-sentence address, November 19, 1863, of what the Civil War was all about — which has come to be regarded as the most famous utterance of an American President, the dramatization will treat of Lincoln's decision to go to Gettysburg. Lowell Thomas will be the narrator.

Massey, a producer and playwright as well as dramatic actor, first starred in a Lincolnian role in 1938 in the title role of Robert E. Sherwood's classic play, "Abe Lincoln in Illinois." After two seasons as Lincoln on Broadway, Massey toured the country during 1939-40 in the Sherwood play and starred in the Academy Award-winning motion picture version.

If the usual schedule is followed it will be the last regular meeting until fall. In May and June the society takes tours to points of historic interest.

SNOW FLAKES FLY HERE ON GOOD FRIDAY

Gettysburg missed another 10-inch snow by a few degrees of temperature Friday afternoon and night. The overnight precipitation accumulated 0.94 inches of water but only a trace of snow was recorded here. At Arendtsville there was an accumulation of an inch of snow.

The state Highway Department here reported that three trucks were sent to Mt. Newman and other mountain sections to scatter antiskid material and to plow slush off the highways.

Rain and sleet that began early Friday afternoon turned to snow at intervals here and several skidding accidents were reported by the state police as heavy Easter weekend traffic flowed over main roads, especially Route 15.

The low reading here overnight was 33 degrees but in rural areas it was below freezing part of the night.

4 INCHES OF SNOW

Heavy rains and some snow and sleet hit western Pennsylvania during the night and today and roads were reported as slippery.

Heaviest accumulations were reported at Phillipsburg where four inches of snow fell and in the Greensville, Mercer County, area where three inches were on the ground.

Heavy rain fell in the Pittsburgh district and in Westmoreland County. Some wet snow also fell in Pittsburgh but there was no accumulation. Some areas had sleet and freezing rain.

The U. S. weather bureau at Pittsburgh reported there should be very little rain today but that snow showers should continue especially in the north and in the mountains. Accumulation also is most likely in the northern sector and in the mountains, it said.

U. S. Strength Is Outlined

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States now has 59 missiles with hydrogen bomb warheads ready, if needed, to hurl against targets in an enemy country.

The nation's combat-ready missile force soon will reach 91.

These include the 5,500-mile Atlas ICBM, equal to more than two million tons of TNT, and the submarine-fired Polaris with a 1,200-mile range and warheads equal to 400,000 tons of TNT.

By way of comparison, the World War II atom bomb, which wrecked Hiroshima was rated at 20,000 tons of TNT.

How U. S. missile strength stacks up against that of the Soviet Union is kept secret, but President Kennedy said in his budget message to Congress this week that "it has been publicly acknowledged for several years that this nation has not led the world in missile strength."

TOURISTS SET NEW MARCH RECORD HERE

March visitation to the Gettysburg Battlefield set a new record for the month, the National Park reported today.

John Rodgers, chief ranger for the local park service, said 81,854 tourists visited the 'field during the month, compared to 57,926 last March, which had set the previous high for the month.

Rodgers said he felt that the bad weather during the winter, which cut visitation during January and February, helped push visitation when better weather arrived. "It almost seemed that people had been cooped up so long they just had to get out and go visiting."

The large number of visitors during March boosted total visitation to the 'field during the first three months above the figure for the first quarter of last year.

This year there were 13,160 visitors in January, 17,765 in February and the 81,854 in March—for a total of 112,779 for the three months.

In 1960 the comparable figures were 19,298 in January, 35,256 in February and 57,926 in March, or a total of 112,480.

The March visitation included 70,294 persons in cars, 10,170 in 256 buses arriving from outside the county, 445 in local buses, 875 were counted walking on the 'field, 40 on horseback and 28 who camped on the 'field.

Report Castro Plotting To Kidnap Caroline Kennedy

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Secret Service agents were reported to have under surveillance today a group of pro-Castro Cubans suspected of plotting to kidnap President Kennedy's bubbling little daughter.

Caroline Kennedy, 3, is under tightened security guard at the Atlantic shore home of her grandparents. She is spending an Easter holiday here with her mother and father, the President and Mrs. Kennedy.

The hunted Cubans — four of them, it is understood — are described by a well informed source as "pro-Castro and anti-Kennedy." This source said, "We think we know who they are and we are keeping them under surveillance."

NO ARREST YET
He added that the Cubans had been located in the Palm Beach area, but that—as of late Friday night—"There isn't enough evi-

Coroner's Jury Declares French Responsible For 3 Deaths In Recent Mishap

A coroner's jury Friday afternoon at the courthouse placed full blame for the three auto accident deaths in the Ray Pittenturf family of Littlestown last Saturday night on the driver of the other car involved, Joseph French, 32, 118 W. High St.

After hearing two witnesses testify that French was intoxicated Saturday night and that his car had zig-zagged across the highway twice before the fatal collision with the southbound Pittenturf car, the jury wrote: "We believe Mr. French was intoxicated and fully to blame for this accident and for the three deaths that followed by driving his car across the highway and against the Pittenturf machine. We strongly recommend that French be prosecuted to the full extent of the law."

French, who attended the hearing and declined to testify, is on $2,000 bail for May court on charges of drunken driving and involuntary manslaughter.

BOARD TO MEET
The Gettysburg borough school board will hold its April meeting Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the superintendent's office at the high school building. President Robert H. Deardorff will preside.

TRUOPER LIGHTNER TESTIFIED
The surgeon told of examining French and finding only minor injuries. He said French told him he had had "10 or 12 bottles of beer" before the accident although he would not say where or with whom. He told the surgeon that some of the questions the latter asked were "none of your business," seemed somewhat confused, smelled of alcohol and was intoxicated. He staggered and once almost fell against the doctor. Dr. Gifford said he certified to the state police the fact that French was drunk.

Truoper Lightner testified to major facts about the crash and showed the jury photographs of the scene and the wrecked cars. He said French had crossed to the Pittenturf side of the road when he crashed head on into the left side of the Pittenturf car.

Asked by the coroner if he had noticed any odor of alcohol about French, the trooper said: "Yes sir, he was under the influence. That's why I asked the doctor to examine him."

The third and final witness was Alvin Spangler, Littlestown R. D., who had been bowling with the Pittenturf family at the Edgewood Lanes Saturday evening and who was preceding them down the Littlestown Highway enroute to their homes.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

THE JOHN BRINKERHOFF FAMILY

The genealogical notes on the Brinkerhoff family of Holland, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and points north, south and west are continued at this time.

Garret (6) Brinkerhoff, the second son of John (5), married second Margaret Cassatt and both are buried in the "Upper" Low Dutch Churchyard. Their graves are well marked and the inscription on the stone at the grave of Margaret (Cassatt) Brinkerhoff reads as follows:—

2. "In memory of Margaret, relict of Garret Brinkerhoff, died March 25, 1867, Aged 82 years, 7 months, and 29 days."

In the files of the "Adams Centinel" (later the "Star and Sentinel") there is, in addition to the ones already given, one last item on the Garret Brinkerhoff family.

WAS MARRIED TWICE

According to family records Garret (6) Brinkerhoff was twice married — first to Magdalena Berlow and after her death to Margaret Cassatt. Maria Brinkerhoff, the daughter mentioned above, was obviously born to the first marriage. It is also reasonable to assume that Magdalena (Berlow) Brinkerhoff is buried in the "Upper" Low Dutch Churchyard in an unmarked grave.

3. Henry (6), the third son of John (5) and Sarah (Van Arsdah) Brinkerhoff, was born August 3, 1790, and died August 15, 1865. His wife was a member of a fine, old French Huguenot family — the Monforts. Henry (6) Brinkerhoff married Phebe Monfort.

In the files of the "Adams Centinel," under the dates given, the following data on the family of John (6) and Phebe (Monfort) Brinkerhoff can be found.

IN UNMARKED GRAVE

1. Wednesday, August 16, 1820 — "Died, Friday night, August 11, 1820, Miss Mary Brinkerhoff, the daughter of Henry Brinkerhoff, Esq., of Bunnichtown, this County."

Note: This item practically speaks for itself and Mary Brinkerhoff is probably buried in the "Upper" Low Dutch Churchyard in an unmarked grave. It will be noted, however, that a grave marker bearing the following inscription, still stands in the "Lower" Dutch Graveyard —

"In memory of Maria Brinkerhoff, died — ? — 1820, Aged — ?" Could Maria Brinkerhoff be Mary, the daughter of Henry (6) and Phebe (Monfort) Brinkerhoff, who died August 11, 1820? If so why is she buried in the Lower Graveyard when other members exterior and hoisting into place the Phillips 66 shields.

"It's going to be pretty hectic at first," DeTar's statement told dealers in the nine-county served by Aero, "but we'll hope both our regular customers and the booming tourist trade will bear with us while we get through this transition period."

Aero, one of the country's largest independent petroleum jobbers, was the first in the mid-Atlantic area to sign for the full line of Phillips petroleum products. In associating itself with Phillips, Aero, which sells more than 54 million gallons of gasoline and heating oil annually, will ally itself with a company marketing more than 85 per cent of its products through independent distributors.

With its entry into the mid-Atlantic area, Phillips, which is eighth in size among U. S. petroleum companies, extends its sales into 40 states and the District of Columbia.

The two inches of snow Arendtsville received last month brought that weather station's snowfall total for the winter to 65.7 inches, Dr. Frank N. Hewetson, the observer there, reported today. He measured an inch of April snow there this morning to be added to the total.

Temperatures at Arendtsville ranged from a high of 75 degrees on March 28 to a low of 15 degrees on March 18. The average daily high was 50.6 degrees and the average daily minimum was 31.1 degrees so that the month's mean temperature, Dr. Hewetson said, was 40.8 degrees.

STAHLNECKER ASKED TO QUIT APPOINTMENT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—P. Stephen Stahlnecker says Gov. David L. Lawrence has asked him to turn down his appointment as the chairman of the Public Utility Commission.

The governor had announced the appointment of Stahlnecker, a Republican member of the commission, as chairman only Thursday.

Stahlnecker reported Friday that Otis B. Morse, Lawrence's personal secretary, had called him to say there had been some confusion and the governor had overlooked a previous commitment.

Stahlnecker told a newsman that Morse then asked him to decline the appointment on grounds of ill health.

NEVER BEEN ILL

"I've never been ill a day in my life," Stahlnecker said, "and I told him I wouldn't do it. That's where the matter rests."

Stahlnecker added, "I was appointed to the job out of a clear sky. I did not try for it."

Joseph Sharfins, a Democratic member of the commission, reportedly had been in line for weeks for the job.

The Philadelphia Inquirer said that when he learned of Stahlnecker's appointment, Sharfins asked Rep. William J. Green Jr., chairman of the Philadelphia Democratic Party, and James P. Clark, a trucking magnate and the party finance chairman here, to put pressure on Lawrence, a Democrat.

Sharfins said, "I took no action whatsoever to gain the appointment. Stahlnecker and I are close friends."

ARE CLOSE FRIENDS

Sharfins would not comment further. Morse also declined to comment.

Lawrence last Thursday appointed Dr. John L. Morris, chairman of the Luzerne County Democratic organization, to take the place on the PUC of Leon Schwartz, a Nanticoke Republican, who had been chairman.

Lawrence could back out of the Stahlnecker appointment by not sending a letter to the PUC officially stating his choice for chairman. Or he could put Sharfins' name in the letter as his choice.

Gettysburg Schools Report

First Grade—A Healthy Adjustment From Home To School (Second And Final Article)

By the time a first grader begins school, his emotional pattern is pretty well established. The child should be accepted for what he is. He should know he is loved, so that he can feel the warmth and security of the home. If the child is secure at home, he will usually be able to cope with larger situations at school. Children who are overprotected and babied will find it hard to leave home and adjust to school life. Confidence can be instilled in the child by letting him know that his parents are his friends. Home should be a place where he knows he can relax and talk after school. The parents' attitudes toward school bolster the child's attitudes, if the attitudes are good ones.

After the school year has begun and the teacher has her program established, it is good to visit school and learn to know your child's teacher. Talk with her about your child and what you can do to help him. Become a member of the PTA and help with its program. Learn to know the superintendent, the principal, the coordinators, the school nurses, the school dentists, the custodians.

Parents should know what the school staff is doing for the child. All members of the school staff have an interest in helping make your child a good strong healthy citizen.

EXPERIENCE HELPS

A first grader should have many first hand experiences insofar as the parents have found it convenient. Has your child been for a ride on a train, an elevator or an escalator? Have you taken him to the zoo, the circus, to a farm, to an airport? Has he seen workers picking cherries and apples? Have you talked to the child about the seasons, about rain, snow, clouds, flowers and animals?

Has your child been to a fire house to see the fire engines and fire fighting equipment? Has he been to the post office, to local museums, to a chicken hatchery? All of these experiences provide a wealth of information for learning to read. During and after such experiences, the child should be encouraged to ask questions. Answers should be explained carefully to the child's inquiries. A child should be taught to listen to what parents say. Listening should be planned and intelligent, accurate and responsive. Listening precedes reading as a way of learning. All of these experiences are a starting point for what goes on in school. The teaching of reading begins long before the child enters school. It begins at home. Here are some questions which might be asked of parents:

Are you as a parent getting your child ready to read? Do you set a time to read to him? When has he last seen you reading a good book? Do you enjoy reading? Are you setting a good example for your child? Do you read regularly to your child? Do you talk to him during meals or any time convenient so that he feels there is a two-way conversation? Home situations mean much to a child who is forming attitudes about learning to read in school. The way a parent answers the above questions may determine the way his child learns to read in school.

PARENTS SHOULD HELP

Reading is taught formally in school, but parents and teachers should work together in helping the child. A teacher wants to do the best for each child. A strong and rich experiential background provides a good foundation for reading. The way a child learns to read and what he takes with him from a reading situation will depend on what experience the child brings to the reading process. With all the visual aids now available in the home, parents have unlimited opportunities to provide their children with a wealth of experience before coming to school.

Teachers are just as anxious to have their children learn to read as are the parents. The teacher's biggest joy is that of teaching a child to read and watching him unfold a part of himself each day. Teaching a child to read is a very fascinating part of being a teacher. All the love, security and learning experience given to the child in years before he comes to school will help the child face the task of learning to live and learn in school.

It's the challenge which those happy, laughing, anxious, crying, effervescent, wide-eyed first graders give.

GETS IMPORTANT PARTS

Three years later, in 1941, she was given her first important parts, including Oscar (The Mashed Ball), Musetta, Lauretta (Gianni Schicchi) and finally Zerbinetta. That season, she sang 187 performances, and it was her portrayal of the part of Zerbinetta that stirred the interest of Maria Ivogun, who took the young Elisabeth as a private pupil.

The interest of this noted interpreter proved to be the turning point of Miss Schwarzkopf's career. Miss Ivogun and her husband, Michael Raucheisen, a noted accompanist and coach, diverted Miss Schwarzkopf's interest to the art song and prepared her for her first lieder recitals.

was "coming fast." French ran off his own right side of the road "and then came across toward me." He said the French car missed his machine, swerved back to his (French's) side of the road where he swerved off the side and then once more veered over into the southbound lane and crashed into the Pittenturf machine. In an effort to avert the crash Pittenturf apparently had swerved right away the right side of his auto while French smashed the left.

RECALL TROOPER

Trooper Lightner was recalled to the stand to testify that "French finally admitted he was driving the car." Dr. Gifford had said French first said a companion had been driving.

Spangler told the jury, in answer to questions from Dr. Crist, that there had not been any drinking by him or Mr. Pittenturf during the evening.

French said nothing during the hearing and it was his attorney, Eugene R. Hartman, who told Dr. Crist that his client would not testify. "He's already told all he knows about it to the police," he added.

District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter participated in the questioning of witnesses. A stenographic record was made of the testimony.

Members of the jury were Mrs. Willis Conover, Mrs. Harvey Bollinger, Carl Diehl, Emory Thomas, J. Clair Sanders and Hugh C. McHenry, the foreman.

Salinger also told newsmen, "All I want to say is that nothing unusual is going on. This is a routine investigation, the like of which they (the Secret Service) conduct a number every year. I

Presbyterians Plan New Apartments

HARRISBURG (AP)—Construction of an ultra-modern 11-story apartment building for elderly persons is planned by the Presbyterian Church.

Presbyterian Apartments Inc., a nonprofit corporation of the church, said Friday it expects to have the 100-unit building completed by 1963. It said the apartment units are planned for persons over 62 years of age.

The firm said the tentative rent schedule, subject to change depending on cost, would range from $75 monthly for a studio apartment to $135 for a two-bedroom unit.

The group has sent some 6,000 questionnaires to churches in 39 central and eastern Pennsylvania counties. It expects to use results of the survey as proof of a need for such housing in order to get a government loan.

am trying to caution you not to write something sensational about a big investigation. This is a routine case being handled routinely."

Secret Service Chief U. E. Baughman, here with the Presbyterian party, said "I will not deny or confirm" the reports about an investigation.

when two cars collided 4½ miles south of here on the Emmitsburg Rd. at 5:35 o'clock Friday evening. Police said Bessie C. Imler, Gettysburg R. 2, had stopped on the highway preparatory to making a left turn. John C. White, Syracuse, N. Y., also headed south, attempted to halt but his vehicle skidded into the Imler car. White paid a fine of $10 and costs before Justice of the Peace Whitman on a charge of driving too fast for conditions brought by state police. White was towing a utility trailer behind his sedan at the time of the accident.

CRASH AT IDAVILLE

Da age was estimated at $150 when a truck and car collided at Idaville Friday evening at 7:15 o'clock, on a snow-covered road.

Police said Julia B. Davis, 49, Park Ridge, Ill., was driving south when she attempted to slow her car. When she touched the brakes the car went into a skid on the slippery highway. Harold E. Martin, 30, Arendtsville, driving a truck following the Davis vehicle, saw it skid and attempted to slow his vehicle to avoid a crash. When he did, his truck also skidded and the two vehicles came together.

TEN YEARS AGO
Little Action In Korea; Reds Are Preparing For Big Drive: Tokyo — Allied tank-infantry patrols stabbed across the 38th parallel into Red Korea "several" times yesterday and today.

Presumably all pulled back to main allied lines after short periods north of the pre-war boundary between North and South Korea.

AP Correspondent John Randolph reported from the western front that the border crossing "had no special significance." They were part of the routine patrolling constantly being carried out along the front.

March Near Normal But It Lacked Snow: March turned in a weather record that was very close to normal in all respects except that it recorded no snow at Gettysburg and snow-free Marches here are in the minority in the last half century.

There were several inches of snow in northern and western parts of the county last month and Gettysburg missed a heavy snowfall by a few degrees of temperature that caused the precipitation to fall in the form of rain, rather than snow.

Total rainfall last month was 3.23 inches—normal for the month here is 3.33 inches.

Firemen Will Vote April 11th On New Truck: The Gettysburg Fire company postponed until its next regular meeting, Wednesday evening, April 11, action on the purchase of a new fire truck, following a demonstration of a Mack truck brought here Saturday afternoon from Palmyra, Pa.

This decision was taken to give a larger proportion of the fire company membership an opportunity to vote. Approximately 50 of the 125 members of the company witnessed the demonstration, and met afterward at the engine house, where a special meeting had been scheduled to decide on the purchase of a fire truck.

Local Women At VFW Meet: Two hundred members attended the District 21 meeting of the Auxiliaries of the Veterans of Foreign Wars which was held Sunday afternoon at the Roseale theatre, Chambersburg. Eva Boose, president presided. Those attending from Gettysburg included Virginia Lauer,

Today's Talk

WALK STRAIGHT AHEAD!
The objective goal is always—straight ahead.

There is only one way to miss it and that is to get off of the straight-ahead road.
And there are plenty of people who do this. The majority of failures in this world are made by those who did not have the vision, the courage and the patience to keep right on going ahead.

The side lines look very attractive at times. And easy jobs flash their false signs. Quick success speaks in a loud voice. But if you want the real article in this life, keep walking straight ahead. The straight-ahead way is a difficult one at its best—but the short cut way is both hard and cruel.

One early learns that he cannot have all. So that to temper one's desires and strive for the most, whereby usefulness shall count for the best—that alone gives compensation.

Walk straight ahead. If you stumble, you will be doing what millions have done before you—but the successful ones picked themselves up and went on in firmer form and better heart.

Encouragement is appreciated after bitter discouragements. After riding over a rough road, what a thrill comes to us on reaching one that is smooth and straight!

Walk straight ahead. You will reach your goal if you lead yourself aright. And remember that when you feel most a failure, then it is that you may be nearest success.

Break Ground For New Church Here On Sunday: Ground breaking exercises for the new Gettysburg Church of the Brethren were conducted Sunday morning at the site two miles north of here on the Biglerville road, south of Keckler's hill.

The oldest member of the church, Rev. B. F. Lightner, 92, and one of the youngest members, three-year-old Ronald Ogborn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Ogborn, Gettysburg R. D., joined to turn the first shovel of ground for the basement of the $110,000 church.

Jesse Sanders Dies Saturday: Ill 7 Months: Jesse N. Sanders, 39, died at his home, 210 West High Street, Saturday at 1:10 p.m. from a complication of diseases following an illness of seven months. He had been bedfast for 10 weeks.

He was born in Fairfield, a son of John P. and Elizabeth (Shriner) Sanders, Westminster R. 6. Mr. Sanders was a veteran of World War II. He was inducted January 1, 1944, and was discharged February 24, 1954, as a fireman first class. He served on a repair ship and was in the South Pacific theater for eight months. For two and one-half years he was a machinist at the Keystone Garment factory.

EASTER DAY

They thought Him dead who saw Him die,
But that first bright Easter Day
Frightened Mary, drawing nigh,
Found Death's great stone rolled away.

They who saw Him crucified
Wept to see His body torn,
Certain that the Christ had died
Till that first glad Easter morn.

Doubt and dread and dismal gloom
Terrified the minds of men
Until Mary, at the tomb,
Found that He had risen again.

Hope and faith and courage smiled
Out of skies long dark and gray,
He, whom scoffers had reviled,
Unto life had led the way!

Alleluia! now we sing.

Death all mortals can defy.
This the truth He came to bring:
All shall live who seem to die.

3 SERVICEMEN KILLED WHEN CAR IS SEVERED

McCONNELLSBURG, Pa. (AP)

—Three Pennsylvania servicemen were killed and another was injured Friday night when the station wagon in which they were riding veered across a rain-slicked highway and was hit by a truck.

State police said the accident occurred on Route 126 about 10 miles north of the Maryland-Pennsylvania line. They said the impact of the collision sheared the station wagon in half and left the two sections some 95 feet apart.

Troopers here identified the victims as Charles L. Eldridge, 20, Meadville, and Irvin L. Muir, 18, of Nu Mine, Armstrong County, both with the army; and John R. Howsare, 20, of Altoona, an airman.

DRIVER IS HURT

Theodore Gavalis, 46, Pittsburgh identified by state police as the driver of the station wagon, was reported in satisfactory condition in the Bedford County Memorial Hospital.

ASSEMBLY TO CLOSE APRIL 21

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)

—The General Assembly pressed Friday to end its cleanup session by April 21 after Soviet-American agreement to shelve debate on disarmament cleared the main obstacle to early adjournment.

The Assembly still faced a heavy schedule bristling with cold war items.

But informed sources said the 99-nation assembly probably would speed things up by limiting itself to symbolic debate on such topics as Hungary, Tibet, the future of divided Korea and Soviet charges against U.S. reconnaissance flights.

CONGO QUESTIONS

Other main agenda items to be disposed of are the Congo question, on which debate still has several days to go, Portugal's administration of her African territory of Angola and Cuba's charges that the United States plans aggression against Fidel Castro's regime.

The Cuban item had been expected to generate considerable heat, but present indications are that the Soviet bloc will not take a very active role in the debate.

LENTEN PRAYER FOR TODAY
from Go With God
BY JIM BISHOP

Christina Georgina Rossetti (1830-1894) was an English-born member of an exiled Italian family of distinguished poets, artists, painters. She long attended her invalid mother, and after a serious illness in 1874 she herself was left an invalid. Some of her greatest work was written in the imposed solitude.

O LORD, who art as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land, who beholdest Thy weak creatures, weary of labor, weary of pleasure, weary of hope deferred, weary of self. In Thine abundant compassion and unutterable tenderness, bring us, we pray Thee, unto Thy rest. Amen.

Some of Christina Rossetti's other prayers are among her most moving and memorable poems. One is:

I love and love not; Lord it breaks my heart
To love and not to love.
Thus veiled within Thy glory, gone apart
Into Thy shrine, which is above.
Dost Thou not love me, Lord, or care
For this mine ill?
I love Thee here or there,
I will accept Thy broken heart; lie still.

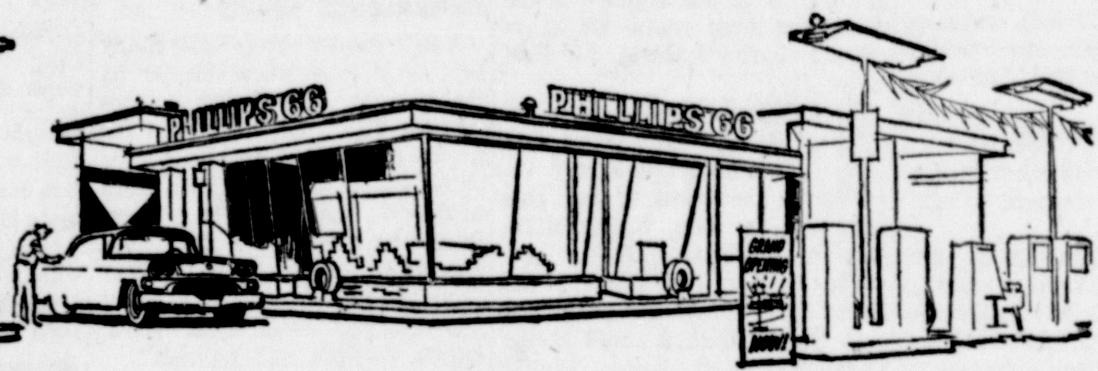

Lord it was well with me in time gone by,
That cometh not again.
When I was fresh and cheerful; worn with pain
Now, out of sight and out of heart;
O, Lord, how long?
I watch Thee as Thou art
I will accept Thy fainting heart; be strong.

"Lie still," "be strong," today; but, Lord, tomorrow,
What of tomorrow, Lord?
Shall there be rest from toil, be true from sorrow,
Be living green upon the sward
Now but a barren grave to me,
Be joy or sorrow?
Did I not die for Thee?
Do I not live for Thee? Leave me tomorrow.

Senators Clobber Athletics 13-3 For 6th Win, 7 Starts

By SHELTON SAKOWITZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Washington Senators have been making their presence felt in the grapefruit league this year. For a franchise that started from scratch and picked players out of a grab bag pool of players, the newcomers have progressed remarkably well in the baseball exhibitions. The "new" Senators' manager is Mickey Vernon, the old-time Washington favorite.

The Senators clubbed the Kansas City A's 13-3 at Pompano Beach for their sixth victory in the last seven citrus starts. This made Washington's won-lost record 11-8, second best among the 10 American League teams this spring.

15-HIT OUTBURST

The "old" Washington franchise has been moved to Minnesota's Twin Cities with the Los Angeles Angels joining the Senators in giving the American League its new look.

Fans in Washington who saw last season's edition of the Nats finish fifth after three straight years in the cellar could have a lot to cheer about if the "new" Senators continue to improve.

Castoffs Dale Long, Danny O'Connell, Willie Tasby and Pete Daley provided the batting punch in Washington's 15-hit outburst against the A's. Each contributed three hits with Long and O'Connell collecting homers.

Rookie Ed Hobaugh, 26, a right-hander drafted from San Diego, pitched seven innings for the Senators, allowing all three A's runs on five hits. Norm Siebern homered for Kansas City. Southpaw Carl Mathias, picked up from Cleveland, finished with two scoreless frames.

BUCS BEAT YANKS

In other games Pittsburgh won its second game this spring from New York 4-2. Cincinnati blanked Indianapolis of the American Association 3-0. Cleveland edged Tacoma of the Pacific Coast League 4-3 and, in a night game at Miami, Detroit whipped Baltimore 6-3.

The Pirates posted their 15th victory in 21 games in maintaining their World Series supremacy over the Yankees. Harvey Haddix, Pittsburgh's winning pitcher in the seventh game of the series,

AHL PLAYOFF GAMES RESUME

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The battles for places in the American Hockey League's Calder Cup playoff finals resume tonight at Springfield, Mass., and Hershey Pa. And indications are they'll really be battles unless the referees take a tighter grip on the proceedings than they had in the opening games.

The defending champion Springfield Indians staged an 8-1 runaway Wednesday in their series opener, a somewhat rugged affair which produced 11 penalties.

MATCH PENALTY

The second-place Hershey Bears trimmed the Buffalo Bisons 6-1 in a contest marked by more than 20 penalties, including match misconduct banishments to Claude Laforce of Hershey and Bob Wilson of Buffalo for a brief but lively fight in the penalty box.

After tonight's games, Springfield goes to Cleveland and Hershey to Buffalo for the third games of the best-of-seven series.

The fourth games will be played at Cleveland Tuesday and at Buffalo Wednesday.

The winners of the semifinals will meet in a best-of-seven series for the Calder Cup championship, which Springfield won last year after taking the league title.

BRAVES GET TWO HURLERS

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — Some critics contended today that the Milwaukee Braves traded nothing for nothing in obtaining pitchers Moe Drabowsky and Seth Morehead. But not Charlie Dressen, the ever-optimistic Braves manager.

The Braves acquired the two question-mark hurlers from the Chicago Cubs Friday in exchange for a couple of surplus infielders — Andre Rodgers and farmhand Daryl Robertson.

"Morehead could be just the relief pitcher we have been looking for and Drabowsky could give us an extra starting pitcher," Dressen said with enthusiasm.

The peppery little skipper explained the failure of Morehead and Drabowsky to win in the National League. He said Morehead "has always been stuck with a club like the Phillies or the Cubs" and Chicago fans "gave Drabowsky the bird even before he started to pitch and he was unhappy there."

Age apparently makes little difference to at least two members of the Chicago White Sox pitching staff. Early Wynn (41)

FOTH CATCHES 98-LB. TARPON

In the most spectacular exhibition of fly fishing ever to claim an accumulation of leads in a single run of The Miami (Fla.) Herald sponsored Metropolitan Miami Fishing Tournament, Bart Foth, Gettysburg, hung his sixth top fly entry last week.

It was a 98½-lb. tarpon, fought on 12-pound leader in the "heavy" fly class. Foth used a 12-inch tippet of 100-pound monofilament line to keep the big silver king from fraying off.

He was guided by Capt. Cecil Keith Jr., out of Islamorada. Keith also guided Foth to his leading 4-lb., 2-oz. trout.

Capt. Jimmy Albright was Foth's guide when he took his leading 10-lb., 6-oz. redfish on a fly. Foth fished from private boats when he landed his 66½-lb. shark and his record bonefish weighing 12 lbs., 10 ounces. He was guided by Capt. Leonard Lowe when he grabbed top honors with a 16-lb., 9-oz. kingfish.

Gordie Coleman's three-run homer in the eighth inning accounted for all the Reds' runs. Bob Purkey held Indianapolis to nine scattered hits in turning in the first nine-inning tour by a Cincinnati pitcher this spring.

Tito Francona's two-run double in the seventh gave the Indians their win over Tacoma. Barry Latman worked for the first six innings for the Tribe and Steve Hamilton pitched three scoreless frames. Dick Phillips had three hits for Tacoma, including a homer.

Jim Bunning went the distance for the Tigers and limited the Orioles to six hits while striking out nine and allowing only one walk. Detroit bunched four of its nine hits off Baltimore starter Milt Pappas for a four-run eighth inning uprising that snapped a 2-2 tie. Ron Hansen and Jim Gentile homered for Baltimore.

GRIFFITH AND PARET BATTLE THIS EVENING

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI BEACH (AP) — Three years and 24 bouts after starting a pro ring career as a rather reluctant warrior, Emile Griffith gets a chance at the world welterweight title tonight.

He meets champion Benny (Kid) Paret in a scheduled 15-rounder at Convention Hall. Although Paret is the 7-5 favorite some observers believe Griffith's speed and cleverness will prevail.

The bout will be televised over the ABC network starting at 10 p.m. Eastern Standard Time. Promoter Chris Dundee predicts a crowd of 5,000 with a gate of $25,000 at $15 tops. Scoring will be on the 10-point must system.

SWIM RECORDS ARE BROKEN IN 25-YARD POOL

By LOU BLACK
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW HAVEN, CONN. (AP) — Too bad the Olympic games are not being held again this year, says America's top swimming experts here for the National A.A.U. Indoor Swimming Championships.

They feel so good mainly because of the awesome display of power displayed so far in the three-day meet which ends tonight.

There have been seven records and seven American records, tops in a 25-yard (short course) pool. World records can be made only in a long course tank. The way things have been going, hardly anybody will be surprised if the current standards in the eight remaining tests survive after tonight's bombardment.

6 RECORDS BROKEN
Six American marks were broken Friday night in five races, two of them in the 440-yard freestyle relay won by the New Haven Swim Club's "A" team and its leadoff star, Mike Austin of Rochester, N. Y.

The quartet of Austin, Jim Lofbourrow, Dave Tyler and Gary Ball finished in 3:15.9, one-tenth of a second under Southern California's record. Austin, a Yale freshman, paced the exciting triumph with 0:47.7 split for the first 100-yards. The listed record was made here last year by Jeff Farrell, 0:48.2.

Other record smashers were defending champions Charley Bittick of Southern California, 220-yard backstroke, 2:09.7, for his second title in as many days, and Mike Troy of Indiana, 220-yard butterfly, 2:10.9; Steve Clark, Los Altos, Calif., high school senior, 220-yard freestyle, 2:00; and Chet Jastremski of Indiana, 220-yard breaststroke, 2:26.7.

On opening night, Bittick bettered the American 400-yard individual medley mark, and Murray Rose, Southern California swimmer from Australia, lowered the meet record in the 1500-meter grind.

M'COVEY IS IMPRESSIVE IN SPRING WORK

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Willie McCovey's rebooming bat provides the big news in the San Francisco Giants camp this spring, boosting pennant hopes in Alvin Dark's first campaign as a manager.

Wallowing Willie hit .354 after joining the Giants in mid-1959 to become National League rookie of the year. Last season he flopped to .238 and was shipped back to the minors for a time.

In spring games this year he's hitting in the .400 neighborhood and covering first base better than ever.

Since 1960's fifth place finish by a team considered a top pennant contender, the Giants hired Dark, captain of their 1954 world champion aggregation. They also acquired Harvey Kuenn from Cleveland in the swap that sent southpaw hurler John Antonelli and outfielder Willie Kirkland into the American League.

AFTER BLAZER'S JOB
Most of the faces are familiar to San Francisco fans. Second baseman Charlie Hiller, batting champion of the Texas League with Harlingen, could out Don Blasingame from his job. Tom Haller, former University of Illinois quarterback, bids for a catching job and pitchers Bob Bolin and Jim Duff

Farm Agent Says Care Is Necessary In Selecting A Plot For Good Vegetables

FRANK S. ZETTLER
Adams County Farm Agent

Gardeners, like actors, can waste a lot of time and energy on a poor plot — and the results will be equally disappointing.

No matter how good the seeds you buy, nor how much time and care you give them, they won't grow into fine vegetables unless they are planted in a reasonably favorable location.

FRANK S. ZETTLER

Among those of us with the itch to plant and watch things grow, and those who savor the inimitable flavor of freshly-picked garden vegetables, not many have an ideal plot with which to work. That would be a level, well-drained, sunny spot with rich, deep, friable sandy loam soil, free from rocks and debris. Most suburban enthusiasts have to make do with something less than this. But there are a few important things that every gardener should look for in planning the location of a garden plot.

GOOD DRAINAGE

One of the most important is good drainage. Vegetable plants — and most others except specially-adapted aquatic species — will drown if allowed to stand too long in water, or really wet soil. Too much moisture in a badly-drained area deprives plant roots of air and nutrients needed for healthy development. Prospective gardeners, therefore, would do well to observe the drainage of a spot for awhile before turning it into a vegetable garden. Presence of a green scum on the soil surface is one indication of excessive wetness.

Another important ingredient for garden success is an open space with plenty of sunshine: direct sunlight for at least 6 to 8 hours a day is a must!

PLANT NUTRIENT

mended practices — certified seed of high-yielding varieties, careful seedbed preparation, plenty of mixed fertilizer at planting, proper cultivation, and thorough insect and disease control, but if your crop doesn't get plenty of nitrogen, all these steps will suffer and your final yields and profits will be reduced.

Nitrogen is not a miracle nutrient — it can't take the place of other recommended plant nutrients or farming practices. However, because it is a key nutrient that promotes fast, lush growth of healthy dark green plants and helps the crop to make best use of other plant nutrients, it is necessary if you are to make the best and most profitable use of your other crop production steps.

CITES SAFE STEP

Use of recommended rates of nitrogen during the growing season is one of the safest steps toward getting the most returns from the investment and work you have in a crop. Nitrogen can generally be counted on to pay back at least two or three times its original cost in increased yields and profits.

Research has shown that, with a sound fertility program and proper adjustments in time of application, little difference in crop yield is obtained between various nitrogen carriers. The important thing is to apply recommended amounts at the right time. A good shot of nitrogen at side-dressing or top-dressing time can make a healthy, growing crop step out and grow to its full potential yield.

MATCH CROP TO SOIL

Pennsylvania soils vary widely in acidity, fertility, topography and drainage. Many soil conditions can be corrected or at least improved by good soil management, proper use of lime and fertilizer, cover crops and drainage. "Even so, some forage crops will do better on certain soils than others. That's why you should match the crop to the soil for top returns from modern forage plants."

Alfalfa, for example, is queen of forage legumes — especially on deep, well-dreamed, well-limed and fertilized soils. But on soils slightly neglected for any one of

Buying a USED CAR?

Timely Tips That Can Help Protect Your Investment!

1. Choose your dealer carefully.
2. Buy only from a well established reputable dealer.
3. Buy only from a dealer who maintains his own adequate facilities to service the car you buy.
4. Insist on a WARRANTY in writing that can be "backed-up."
5. BUYING from a NEW CAR DEALER IS YOUR BEST BET. . . . Most new car dealers sell locally owned trade-ins, not Used Cars obtained from Auto Auctions or distress merchandise from large cities.
6. Insist on knowing where the Used Car came from. "Ask who was the previous owner." Most new car dealers will be happy to tell you and invite you to contact the previous owner.
7. New Cars bought from Used Car Dealers . . . REMEMBER, only the New Car Dealer is authorized to extend a FACTORY WARRANTY to a buyer, NO ONE ELSE.

WOULD LIKE A GOVERNMENT TV CHANNEL

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—One of the men who helped make television great would like to see a government channel, much like the BBC in England.

"The air belongs to all the people," says movie director Delbert Mann, "not to Madison Avenue." Before he came to the movies and won the best director Oscar for his first picture "Marty," Mann was one of television's bright young men.

He and producer Fred Coe, these factors birdsfoot trefoil may be the more productive legume.

SOME GOOD GRASSES

Many grasses also have characteristics which make them especially suited for a particular soil crop use. Orchardgrass is best adapted to well-drained soils but is also one of the most drought, tolerant grasses. Bromegrass, on the other hand, is suited primarily to deeper, more fertile soils.

To make the most of forages, you'll be ahead of the game to plan your forage program, not only from the standpoint of matching the crop to the soil but also with proper consideration of intended use of the forage and seeding simple mixtures of various legumes and grass varieties that mature at different dates for easier harvesting.

Cops Resign After A "Practical Joke"

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two policemen accused of using phony commitment papers to send a Puerto Rican to a hospital for a mental examination have resigned from the force "under circumstances of prejudice."

The resignations of patrolmen Carlo M. Ferrari, 30, and Joseph Falotico, 24, were announced Thursday by Police Commissioner Albert N. Brown. Brown also ordered an investigation and said the patrolmen could not be reinstated. Authorities said one of them had admitted filling out the fake commitment papers as a practical joke.

The papers were dated Feb. 30, 1961. The Puerto Rican, Jose Zayas, 28, missed a day of work to go to Philadelphia General Hospital where he learned of the fraud.

KILLED IN CRASH

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two automobiles crashed head on in suburban Berwyn Friday, killing one person and injuring two others.

The dead man is Francis C. O'Connell, Jr., son of a Philadelphia police captain.

His passenger, Mrs. Dolores McCoy, was taken to Bryn Mawr Hospital in critical condition.

The other driver, Fred Bagshaw, Jr., 27, of West Chester, suffered chest injuries. He, too, is in Bryn Mawr Hospital.

Dress Right

Bob Hope, Johnny Mathis, Henry Fonda and Pat Boone were show business stars named last week by the Fashion Foundation of America among the ten best men in America. Others were President John F. Kennedy, former U.N. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, baseball's Leo Durocher, politician Joseph F. Carlini, artist Raymond Duncan and businessman Bob Strong. Hope bested Jack Benny in the comedy division, Mathis wound up ahead of Frank Sinatra in the music, Boone edged out Cary Grant for the screen title, while Fonda was the runaway choice in the theater.

Polly Bergen

Just call 5'7" Polly Bergen shorty. Her father is 6'5" tall, and both her mother and sister are a shade over 6' in height.

Pajama Game

It's just about definite that TV's Julia Meade will devote her summer vacation to touring as star of the musical comedy, "Pajama Game." Contracts with the various theaters in which she will appear will be signed during the week.

Allen At Bat

Ship reporters who greeted sportscaster Mel Allen when he arrived back in the United States from Europe on March 10 asked why he was returning after the Yankees spring season (training) had already started. "I wanted to give Joe DiMaggio a chance to get into shape first," quipped Mel.

Clint Walker:

Star Of "Cheyenne"

VERY often an actor will go to great extremes in an effort to develop the proper mood for his next role. Many have traveled thousands of miles to absorb the native atmosphere for the part, occasionally, but very rarely a role so parallels the real life of an actor that it would seem almost made to order. In the area of TV westerns this has not been the case too often. The hordes of "cigar store cowboys" are more the rule. However, there is one outstanding exception, Clint Walker.

Clint, the tall range hero of ABC-TV's "Cheyenne," not only looks, talks and acts like a cow-one principle or another.

Must Be Star

"A six-sixer has virtually no chance to stick around as a supporting actor," Clint says, "He's too big for such roles because he's too tall for the star of the show."

So Walker has to be a star or settle for nothing. The struggle was a difficult one. He fought his way to the top the hard and hungry way. Victory came six years ago when he won the role of "Cheyenne" at Warner Bros.

Actually, his physical problem didn't end with the stardom. For sometime six-foot men would re-

"Gee whiz, no," answered Valerie, "I was playing like a real cowboy."

Close Family

"I still love her, though," Clint smiled.

"Our is a closely knit family; my wife, Lucille, and my daughter, Valerie. We three like the same sports, food, comfortable clothes—an outdoor life. Come vacation time and the three of us are off for the hills again, prospecting or just drinking in the western scenery in California, Utah or Nevada."

Clint doesn't credit outdoor life alone for his strong body and boy but has lived and worked outdoors since the age of nine and has been a real cowpoke in Texas and a deputy sheriff in Las Vegas. In addition, while he was punching cows in Texas he did a great deal of prospecting using a pick and shovel.

Hunts Uranium

ACTUALLY, he has never given up the urge to see if there is gold in "them thar hills." Today Clint hunts uranium, as well as gold and does is scientifically. Now he does his prospecting with a Geiger counter, scintillation and black light.

"Don't think it is all push button prospecting," Clint says. "You still have a lot of hill climbing to do and that pick, shovel and gold pan are a must."

So to 6'6", 235 pound Clint Walker, playing the role of "Cheyenne" isn't like acting at all. In addition to having spent most of his 33 years in western garb he has been fighting all the time for fine physique. He's a firm believer in health foods. Walker insists he is not indulging in a fad. He attributes his own superb condition to the health food regime maintained at home.

Real Cowboy

ALTHOUGH he is undoubtedly the most true to life westerner on TV today, there is one person who needs convincing, his daughter.

"Kids make you wonder sometimes," says Clint. "I looked out into the yard one day and saw my daughter, Valerie, dressed in western costume. She was playing the time honored American game of make believe, with shouts of 'bang, bang' and a lot of running about."

With some pride Clint went out into the yard, knelt down beside his daughter and asked "Honey, were you pretending that you were daddy?"

Like Vegetables

"WE steer clear of all processed foods," he says. "I'm convinced that food that isn't organically grown, loses most of its energy giving properties. We like vegetables that come out of the virgin soil."

So insistent is Walker that people know the rudiments of healthy eating and exercising habits, that he has even written a book on the subject.

The Walkers live in a modern hillside home in the San Fernando Valley near Los Angeles. The garage is his favorite room. It is equipped with a bewildering array of mechanical tools that only Clint, because of his background as "Jack-of-all-trades" knows how to operate.
